

PRESS RELEASE

The Executive Director of GAMCOTRAP Dr. Isatou Touray and her delegation paid a condolence visit to the United Kingdom Ambassador to the Gambia on the death of the Late Queen Elizabeth II in his residence at Fajara. She signed the book of condolence on behalf of the board of directors, staff and volunteers of GAMCOTRAP, and prayed that Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II rest in perfect peace. Earlier a message of condolence was sent to the Office of the British High Commission on behalf of the organization. It reads;

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, Staff and Volunteers of GAMCOTRAP, we wish to express sincere condolences to the Royal Family and the entire British citizens on the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the II. As members of the Commonwealth her demise is a big loss for us and we will miss her a lot.

May the Lord Almighty reward her abundantly and grant her eternal peace and tranquility.

The British Ambassador welcome the delegation in his office and had a conversation with the team accepting their condolences on behalf of the late Queen Elizabeth II family.